I know it's not fashionable
To be this hopeful
..well laugh away

I didn't think it was possible
To be grateful
..anyway

I know it's not sensible
To be this passionate
..everyday

Days go by
I catch myself smile
More than you'd ever expect
It's been a long while
Since it's been OK
To feel this way

In the volumes of history
Have you seen anything
..so pure

In the wildest mythology
Were the gods and goddesses
..ever so in love

In your own experience
Have you ever known tenderness
..like this

Days go by
I catch myself smile
More than you'd ever expect
It's been a long while
Since it's been OK
To feel this way
There are the most precious
Of all my days
