Could I have known, what to expect insted I learned the Hard way I have seen better days than this and I still Tried my best Although nothing came of every single day
But look at me now, I'm all okay All through your Heartache At your bedside I remained Let the obvious in
With all I gave, there was nothing in return You made me Feel useless But now it's your turn to learn Stop Screaming at me Stop making excuses tell me the truth

Maybe this change was for the best, these were your words
I let go of all my friends So I could stay by your side I Never realized There's no words to describe How this felt
No alibi Now you know too And I'm much stronger now
More Than I was before this All thanks to you A calandar and a Half for what Count the days of six months time To see Past myself with you
