One times seven equals heaven traditions
The creations of men religion for
The sake of religion rituals the right of Profession clergies of ranks the files

And lines brainwash the sect for the Mentally blind and now Babylon's got a
New name for those modern disguises
To hide the shame it's a choice

Between God and man undermined by
The heretics hand humanity's last ditch
Try to build a bridge to heaven with
Earthly lives brace yourself the saints

Die today and protect yourself from
The wrath blinder leading the blinded
Indulgence buys the sick minded fallibility
Secures the fallacy reinterpret the Facts of history doctrines a pile of Yokes salvation or collars to choke off

The life with infinite ropes to climb
Brainwashed to think your face is

Worth the time arrogance rich with Sundays that pack the walls with some Idols to spare exalt and isolate acts to Reject the grace that born from the Facts fed with flank insides never Mind the saints that died your foundation's

Been undermined
