Right

So let your face consume my mind, right
Let your face consume my mind, right
So let your face consume my mind, right
Let your face consume my mind

New day springs light on the burdened, the downcast
Past lingers to define the outcast
I long for the coming of Chapter 2
To put an end to this cycle of backlash

So I start where the last chapter ended
But the veil has been lifted, my thoughts are sifted
Every wrong is righted
The new song I sing with every breath, breathes sight in

So let your face consume my mind, right
Let your face consume my mind, right
So let your face consume my mind, right
Let your face consume my mind

So let your face consume my mind, right
Let your face consume my mind, right
So let your face consume my mind, right
Let your face consume my mind

Hair standing on end, it's sent forth
Is this the end I was always meant for?
I still long for the taste of better days long ago
Long past, so dead to me but yet

Here it is in the palm of my hand to see
As I witness the birth of a new beginning
I sense it breathing, I feel it seething
I see my fear being fading

So let your face consume my mind, right
Let your face consume my mind, right
So let your face consume my mind, right
Let your face consume my mind

So let your face consume my mind, right
Let your face consume my mind, right
So let your face consume my mind, right
Let your face consume my mind

Right

Breathe on me, breathe on me
Breathe on me for my new beginning

For my new, breathe on me
For my new, breathe on me
For my new, breathe on me
For my new beginning, for my new

Breathe for my new
Breathe for my new
Breathe for my new beginning
For my new

Breathe for my new
Breathe for my new
Breathe for my new beginning
For my new beginning
