Ah, I bleed on the cross
For my sins, redeemed
A life of evil
Redeemed by the grace of god

I make you wish you were never reborn
You're filth, the filth
Upon your grave I will be laughing with scorn
Once I'm control of body, mind and soul
I will breed inside you
You will taste my breath, the one taht reeks of death
While I breath inside you

I cry out, oh, heavenly christ
I see the grace, I feel your pain
But I am possessed by the dark
It possesses my soul
I am possessed by the dark
It possesses my soul

At dusk when deathlike silence sets in
You can hear me scrape your bones
At night when all your nightmares begin

I am but one - The Possession
I am but one - The Possession

The cleansing can begin
He who dies will die of sin
The cleansing can begin...

I rise, I fight to feel victorious
I fight to ruin, I fight to win
The filth I conquer, victorious I sin
The Possession

In the eyes of God I am the only one
Who brought the shame on us
In the eyes of God I am the only one
Condemned to walk this path
I'm dead in his heart

Like the needle in your vein I overpower your domains
When you hear the choir bells, be sure we are Descending down to hell
I find peace when I am done
Your divine powers will sone be none
I will grant you my dominion and you will worship me
The Possession

I bleed on he cross - The Possession
I bleed on he cross - The Possession

Godless evermore, go with God, no vermin
Lika a needle I push your skin
Not from the outside but from within
Darkest of powers I will unleash
By evil infested you'll be deceased
I make you wish you were never reborn
For this possession I deserve a reward
In the darkest hour you're filled with lead
I'll come alive and you'll be dead

Cleansing of my light can begin
You will now envy my life in sin

Depressed you break, drown in tears
The gun you hold will end all your fears
I rise to ruin, I fight to win
The filth I conquered
Victorious I sin

The Possession
The Possession
The Possession
The Possession

Surrender divine!
Your soul is now mine!
Surrender, God's swine!
To the demonical possession!
