Somehow I lost my way
And now it's clear to me
All that I fought so hard to keep
Is all I had to leave

I know you can't hear me
And you won't believe me
But there is something I must say here
Before I fade away

This is the world ends again
This is the world ends again
This is the world ends again
This is the world ends

Forever we will be hollow
Forever we will be
Forever we will be hollow
Hollow again

Forever we will be hollow
Forever we will be
Forever we will be hollow
Hollow again

So I'm left here waiting
So long I'm contemplating
And now I know how it is
But now it's far too late

This is the world ends again
This is the world ends again
This is the world ends again
This is the world ends

Forever we will be hollow
Forever we will be
Forever we will be hollow
Hollow again

Forever we will be hollow
Forever we will be

Forever we will be hollow
Hollow again

How will we open the eyes of the dead
When we are hollow, hollow?

And all along here I was told
By fallen men in their charade
That we could find a hope inside
The safety of this empty place

This is the world ends again
This is the world ends again
This is the world ends again
This is the world ends

Forever we will be hollow
Forever we will be
Hollow again

Forever we will be hollow
Forever we will be
Hollow again

Forever we will be hollow
Forever we will be
Hollow again

Forever we will be hollow
Forever we will be
Hollow again
