Breath of life diminished without reservation.
An answer to questions with this consultation.
No reply to spoken words of this end result.
Life once sweet is as bitter as salt.

Kill yourself, Kill yourself
Why don't you kill yourself
When beating hearts cease
That's when your level of interest will increase
Kill yourself, Kill yourself
Why don't you kill yourself
Why such an extremity without lack of identity

Society speaking without this forethought.
Forgetting as parents all that we've been taught,
That a mind of anger speaks without clear thinking.
Knowing not of the actions that would lead to this sinking.
