Take the time, to read through my cliche lines

Did I stutter when I said these second thoughts are killing my head
And I would like to say...
Am I making a mistake telling you the truth
My heart can't take the beating, is there something I'm not reading

Ooohh yeahhh, I'm not reading

Where do we go from here?

I gotta get this picture out of your head
To make room for your regrets
Is it wrong to say...

Am I making a mistake telling you the truth
not reading (x2)

I'll take all the blame for this
I'll fall
I'll take all the blame for this
I'll fall down
I'll fall down

Am I making a mistake telling you the truth
not reading

Am I making a mistake telling you the truth
My heart can't take the beating, is there something I'm not something I'm not reading Something I'm not reading, something I'm not reading
