PDM See the difference between us and them is we keep it underground and wicked.
Something ya'll don't know nuthin about. All these groups I hear claming underground. How much you pay that fuckin DJ to spin that? MTV to play that?
That freestyle, how much for that? Hahahaa

(Prozak)

Goin insane my brain refrains from the pain of being lame
Ya'll should be a monopoly and not fuck with this rap game
It's a shame this industry's standards got ya'll tainted But you're paraded and playded got you devastated and hated
So fuck it so sick of the mainstreams and fantasy pipe dreams
I'm sick of drama queens don't follow me or I'll let these demons outta me
With a vengeance it's a wicked evil presence Now wanna pretend this aint real like Vacil Prozak's ill I'm talkin bout NyQuil don't wana drive? Well I will Strait to hell all because you have to do what thou will But I am not concerned I hope this lesson's learned Sit on the edge of the industry dog and watch it burn

It's Project Deadman comin from the underground Wicked is how we kick it arrested but never convicted Your time has come this shit is goin down Your whole life trying to find something real We're Project Deadman and we're bringin that sound We're from the murder glove bitch we got issues
We got the wicked shit we'll never let it down Project Deadman more underground the hell

Project PDM Deadman

(Prozak)

Crazy and ran that speaks on rap beats with rock

Bizzare and yet ridiculous it's so maticulous
So sick with this we meditated my crimes aint victimless
Fuck how you feel fuck keepin it real Fuck the mass appeal
And fuck the same old shit and fuck your record deal
Many have tried but failed now watch their bodies fail It's Project Deadman more underground then fuckin

You tryin to get inside? Access denied I am the Deadman walking Project Deadman. Our pledge to the undergorund is wicked even though life is self inflicted. And that fuckin beat is how we ripped it.

Also deadly to the underground committed
