"Timekiller"

Go away leave me alone
I feel your presence in my mind
You calm my mind you calm my mind
The time seems to stop I set you free
Make my dreams come true - baby
That fiction and reality melt together for eternity
Every time it seems to me
Liquid words dropping down the stairs
Filling the emptiness with sense
You and me on the floor floating on our sensibility
You need a timekiller and you don't understand

I am like quicksand lick it from my hand
I am your timekiller I let your mind expand
I am like quicksand lick it from my hand
Tick tock tick tock madness comes tonight

What's reality compared to me
I'm here to stay forever but not today
I'm in a state of mind which makes me blind
I rest on the bed and I'm sure I slowly get mad
For the fact that I'm a man

You need a timekiller and you don't understand
I am like quicksand lick it from my hand
I am your timekiller I let your mind expand

I am like quicksand lick it from my hand
And in my mind is no space for you
The exit already melted away
In my heart is no place for you

And now there's nothing left to say
You need a timekiller and you don't understand
I am like quicksand lick it from my hand
I am your timekiller I let your mind expand
I am like quicksand lick it from my hand
