"Reunion In War"

Cast aside with broken shield I was abandoned by my god left as dirt among the lonely race it painted dark my space open wound from a dagger hand left open for no cause rewinded thoughts I endlessly gazed I found conviction in it's claws
reunion in war
traumatic point in a useless breath I'm choking on it's curse faded role into dark absence I was divided into half a serpent's sting and a spit within soon the poison starts it's search open casket headless bones and my fight revived much worse it tortures my thoughts it leaves me in vain it tortures my nights it drives me insane
failure and frustration
