"Sweet Obsession"

Aimed at with precision I'm lost inside your turf the faceless demolition my antichrist rebirth when stranded in between reboot me
I'm aiming, I hold the trigger I'm your victim my battle now reformed it follows my direction it consumes me whole it stains my crucifixion it calms my soul
I'm a target in your distance your eyes observe my moves forgiveness through devastation the penetration drills its hole

Sweet obsession, dark and cold chain me in your deep vaults sweet obsession chills my blood embrace me in your shade once more
