The first time I saw her,
my heart broke apart,
she is dancing like a goddess, she is so fine,
I want to make her mine, looking in her eyes,
makes me realize,
Iâve got to know her, Iâve got to get her, youâre taking my breath -
Celeste,
you push me down on my knees, oh baby please give me the rest -
Celeste,
I want to kiss your luscious lips, oh baby please give me the rest -
Celeste,
her voice sounds like a fallen angel, her body is wrapped in black leather, she attracts me,
she touches my soul,
I want to stay,
she makes me rise,
then she turns away, Iâm just a figure in the game she plays every night, with every man who catches her sight,
youâre taking my breath -
Celeste,
you push me down on my knees,
Celeste,
I want to kiss you luscious lips,
oh baby please give me the rest - Celeste.
