i run so slow
no one hears and no one sees my moves
and i drink so slow
my twins will break up inside nothing sounds like it
and feel too cold
to turn around you can feel it if you try when you are looking inside of me don't move fast away from me you would agree
if yor were me
my killing instinct will kill you if you don't care about what i do i fall so deep
i can't resist
when you 're aslep
fall torture
mirror of infinity
i fall so deep
i can't resist when you're asleep
this pain is so sore
i'll eliminate no more
this pain is so sore i'll kill no more
