a rotting smell all over the park jesus is dead sky is like an ark there are wars all over the world millions of dead men
you just get gripes
from all these lies
you'll just be shocked
be excavating paradise
warning signs in the sky
but we are blind
but we're so blind
thousands of kids
starve every minute
we're swimming in pollution
this planet is dying
we're so fucking blind
see the sun rise this morning another beautiful day
go to work and repress
the decay
