for all who didn't get it yet we're living in the age of change that means you should change yourself don't wait until the others will you have the power to change the world
small reason huge effects
small reason huge effects
time is running away
second for second
break out of your mind-cage
and control your rage
you're responsible
you're responsible
understand that
understand that
don't be a cog-wheel anymore
don't be a cog-wheel anymore
don't sit there
move your ass
one is all

and all is one

all is one

and one is all

every little thing you do

causes huge effects

the whole world

depends on your actions

you're responsible

you're responsible

understand that

understand that

the moon is red

the sun burns

the moon is red

time is running away

you're responsible

understand that

understand that
