They follow me on a misty early morning
Dancing like fools they can't stop
Hypnotized eyes, they're marching in queue
Stumbling feet are raising dust in the avenue

They'll dance until they're exhausted
One by one
Death caused by flute
Like rats they are all leaving the town

I'll get them all, kill them all one by one
They'll fade away, no hope for them they will obey
I'll get them all, kill them all one by one
They'll fade away, no hope for them they will obey

One by one
One by one
One by one
One by one

They follow me
That's the price they pay
Vibrating sounds in the air
And the sky is grey

I did it before
And I'll do it again
Another time
Another way to pay

They'll lose their children
'Cause I'm now back again
They don't notice the way
I'll make them insane

Their kids are sitting in front of machines
No more vibrating sounds but hypnotizing lights
They're staring into monitors
They're staring into monitors

I'll get them all, kill them all one by one
They'll fade away, no hope for them they will obey

I'll get them all, kill them all one by one
They'll fade away, no hope for them they will obey

One by one
One by one
One by one
One by one

I'll get them all, kill them all one by one
They'll fade away, no hope for them they will obey
I'll get them all, kill them all one by one
They'll fade away, no hope for them they will obey

One by one
One by one
One by one
One by one
