You are thinking, turn around, you are feeling, turn around
And you are here, aren't you? You hear me, don't flee
You feel yourself, you ask yourself, what is this?
Hold this thought, don't flee
Close your eyes

Where is your center? Where is my voice
Does a stone move your heart or a soul of your choice?
Where is your center? Where is my voice
Does a stone move your heart or a soul of your choice?

You are existing, aren't you? You are emotion, aren't you
You are flexible, aren't you? You are following me, aren't you?
Physical, no, feel yourself, locate yourself
Locate yourself, feel yourself
Close your eyes

Where is your center? Where is my voice
Does a stone move your heart or a soul of your choice?
Where is your center? Where is my voice
Does a stone move your heart or a soul of your choice?

Where is your center? Where is my voice
Does a stone move your heart or a soul of your choice?
Where is your center? Where is my voice
Does a stone move your heart or a soul of your choice?

Where is your center? Where is my voice
Does a stone move your heart or a soul of your choice?
Where is your center? Where is my voice
Does a stone move your heart or a soul of your choice?

Where is your center? Where is my voice
(These are my words like souls in ice)
Does a stone move your heart or a soul of your choice?
(Beside your mind or into you)
Where is your center? Where is my voice
(These are my words like souls in ice)
Does a stone move your heart or a soul of your choice?

(Beside your mind or into you)
