Seven sisters gone to London
There nations in despair
They pray for peace and guidance
The pray to calm there fears
I walk without there darkness
I walk without their fears
I feel a strong sensation
Someone watches over me

And they'll Run, They run, they run
And they'll Run, They run, they run And they'll Run,
They
Run, they run
Someone watches over me

Seven sisters working in the shadows
Of nations in despair
They see the heavy hearts of
Those who live in fear
I walk without the darkness
I walk without the fear
I feel a strange sensation
Someone watches over me

And they'll Run, They run, they run
And they'll Run, They run, they run And they'll Run,
They
Run, they run
Someone watches over me
