Deep into the jungles depth
And far away from civilisation
The law of nature doesn't exist
A mystery for mankind
For the first time of history
Explorers try to conquer
The inner circle of evolution
And find the beginning of life
Magic mists, shadows of death
Pathless territory, observed
A memorable journey awaits
An anatomical alteration
A view from inside
Total emptiness
Lost in the past
The terror begins
Travel back in time
Where the unknown exists...
Strange climate and insects
Beyond your darker thoughts...
Suddenly your body begins to shiver
A visit from a strange insect
Maybe to increase in your flesh
Or make you suffer
Your eyes do not longer obey
You're floating in another dimension
Your mind can't memorize
And your limbs can't move
Your body seems dead
But your brain still lives
Slowly you open your eyes
And the sight makes you cold
Your body wrapped in tissue
The flesh surrounded by net
The intruder has now been taking
Control of your damaged mind
Desire to increase
Lust of fertilization
And visions from your passed life
Slowly vanish through your head
A fusion of organs

An anatomical miracle
Self-fertilization
The torment can proceed
Anatomical alteration
Now you have raped yourself
Soon you'll be reborn
As a helpless freak
You and the intruder as one
Two creatures gather their souls
And the result is no longer human, just misery
