I'm boiling over the top and i can't hide it and this is not going stop and I can't fight it I'm gonna fall into the dirt an unstable head and nothing that works

I looked and I can't find What its gonna take I can not rewind
all my fucking mistakes

My lines about to snap and no one called it How will you react to a psychotic
I guess my nuts
and bolt are loose
If you don't believe me
I can show you the proof I looked and i can't and I can't find
all my fucking mistakes
