Well i hold my heart so close on my sleeve
And i'll give it away if they take it away from me
Some say that's a flaw
Others say that's just me
So here is my heart, just take as you please

I only got this moment
It's all i am
It's all i am today, today

And i am sensitive to the fact
That i can never fully watch my back
Without you by my side
Without you by my side

Cause ?? Pennsylvania
Go off onto your home

So here is your anthem a song to remind
What it was like when your life passed you by Just 18 years all i have is to be
You tell me what happened to these memories

I only got this moment
It's all i am
It's all i am today, today

And i am sensitive to the fact that i can never fully watch my back
Without you by my side
Without you by my side

Cause ?? Pennsylvania
Go off onto your home

Gone away
Gone away
Gone away
Gone away
