How I will rise up from the waters where I've drowned

You will know me

You will see

Your face will light up from the glory that it's found

I am listening

You are hearing me

Don't go

Make your mind up

I've been down far as can be

Up until then my voice, it was caught up

Up until then, I never could see

You'll find out I am nothing I might seem

It's not opened so easily

Don't go

Make your mind up

I've been down far as can be

Up until then my voice, it was caught up

Up until then, I never could see

Don't go

Make your mind up

I've been down far as can be

Up until then my voice, it was caught up

Up until then, I never could see
