My God
I've come
I'm waiting in you it's been so long Will you never prove the plans you made.
Show me your truth and help my faith to stay...

I will not be shaken not deny
the plans that you have spoken for my life..
I will not abandon leave behind..
the call to follow throughout time..

My child
I'm here
I hold out my arms and I calm your fears...
I will take care of all the unknown and all of the unclear....

I will not be shaken not deny
the plans that you have spoken for my life
I will not abandon leave behind
the call to follow throughout time.

I am surrounded..
I am broken..
Remember me...

I will not be shaken not deny
the plans that you have spoken for my life
I will not abandon leave behind
the call to follow throughout time..

Oooh time....
