War and pain fall down like rain

Time to kill - thousands I will
Morbid thoughts enter my brain
Goals to reach - trenches to fill

The world will be no more
The casualties of war
Blood is shed - millions are dead
Sounds of death rip through my head
Minds i rape - chances I take Bones I break - choices I make
The world will be no more
The casualties of war
You chose to talk the talk

I'm known to walk the walk

You dared to cross my path

And now you'll feel my wrath
