Over the sands, we will roll
Blood on our hands and our souls
Filthy ideals fed to us those who play god
In god we trust?
This is insane
We were wrong
These days of shame last so long
I've taken on this position cause that's where I stand
About the deadly mission and meet our demands Inhabitants beware of the fascist regime
Denounce the tales of torture, absurd and obscene Pure deception, sleight of hand, spread dementia across the land
Information overload
Infiltrate the status quo Don't speak for me or stain my name on these disgraceful days of shame
Your wordliest possessions are now worth a shit Economical warfare, all world markets hit 100000 dead and billions are spent Inauguration - all threats and messages sent From the ashes we will rise to wipe this nightmare from our eyes
Our fear is most contagious, our ignorance bliss
A lethal show of force - but the force is remiss
All based on false perception to misplace the blame No place to hand our heads in these days of shame, in these days of shame...
