Odessa Texas 1948

Destined for greatness, and he couldn't wait

As for motive, that's up for debate

Lone Star, yeah... he's packin the heat

Rubbin elbows with the social elite

Who took notice of a world at his feet

The big drill, and the CIA

Richard Nixon paved the way for this god to have his day VP under Bonzo Reagan

Then Pres, of this once great nation

91', his first invasion

Oh... the good ol' days I miss

Now get me out of this, this hierarchal abyss

Kissin' Middle Eastern ass

While pride, black gold, and gas

Just a profiteer on your foreign soil

Operation Blood for Oil

Passed the buck to his number one

Now we're fucked by the bastard son

Can't hide, so we better run

Three cheers for the underachiever

Once a drunk, and now a believer

All hail The Great Deceiver

First term saw mass corruption

2 wars to boost production

All done for your protection

C'est La Vie to French relations and to NATO's limitations that prevent occupations

Oh... bleed me til' I'm bled

Voices never heard, blues are getting' red

Kissin' Middle Eastern ass

Skull bones, black gold, and gas

He an irritation and a fucking boil

Operation Blood for Oil
