Cigarettes and ice cream
girl of my dreams
I've gone and messed things up again.
This wasn't our first fight and it won't be our last fight
if you can give me a second chance.

Take the stupid things I said
and get them out of your head.

Cause this was the last time, this was the last time I swear.

Please come home, when I'm forgiven
Please come home, cause this aint livin.

Insecurities make guys say funny things
when they shouldn't say a word.
Let's just start back at the start before everything fell apart,
I'd be a different man.

Take the stupid things I said
and get them out of your head.

Cause this was the last time, this was the last time I
swear.

Please come home, when I'm forgiven
Please come home, cause this aint livin.
Please come home
Please come home
Please come home
Please come home
