I, I just want to find it
I just want to see what the moon's shining on
And I just want to know
What the day is running from

And I just want to try it
I just want to see how it fits on me
And I just want to know
What the day is running from

But just go to bed now you crazy kid
You'll be alright I know come morning time
But morning time is nothing
Time is nothing without you

And I just want to see it
I just want to be where the sky meets the earth
And I just want to know
What the heart thinks I'm worth

But just go to bed now you crazy kid
You'll be alright I know come morning time
Just let the moon rise and the sun go down
Don't let the hard times make you feel alone

I turn out my light and climb out my window into the backyard
And I want streets where the street lights are shining and the fog is rolling in

I say goodbye as it fades away
Out past those trees I'm gonna find my way
Please don't be scared for me
I'm big and I'm strong
You had to know that I would leave all along

I just want to find it
I just want to see what the moon's shining on
And I just want to know
What the day is running from
