"Summer Girl"

Whats your name summer girl?
Will you stay until september comes?
And takes it's sun from your blonde hair

Whose your type summer girl?
Who'll hold you tight till the fall comes?
And your life takes you away

I remember seeing you
Before the summer sun touched your pale skin
And now you're golden
And sitting round the fire with my friends

What's your name summer girl?
Will you stay until september comes?
And your life takes you away

Whose your type summer girl?
Who'll hold you tight till the fall comes?
And takes it's sun from your blonde hair

All the loneley winter days
Crust and brake around like autumn waves
And massachussets base
And guess cast out to sea and gone for good

Who's your love?
Where will you go when september comes?
And brings your body back to him

Walk with me summer girl
Walk with me till the sun comes
And takes the night, our world, away
