

Farewell, My Love

I swore that I'd always love you
& your sweet smile & the scent of your hair
But your flare has gone away for awhile
Take me to the edge of town to
To sort this whole thing out
To sort this whole thing out
I get lost in your eyes & the glow of the fireflies

Lets run away, together we stay,
Forever in your arms, I crumble

& now my dream continues,
So real as you push your hand into mine,
To let me know it's alright
We walk in hand out of the sunlight
Hear the clock strike
12
I'm waiting for your whisper
Before the last petal hits the ground

Lets run away, together we stay,
Forever in your arms, I crumble,

LOVE, DEATH, FORGET,
BREATHE, WISH, ONE KISS

Oh, so ready to go
I won't accept that
I'm on my own

Lets run away, together we stay,
Forever in your arms, I crumble
