Isn't it wise
Loving someone
They telling lies
They get insulted
I'm not wise
I believe what you tell them for me
I believed you
I believe you
I believe

A love that explodes
Convulsing your body
Your only hand extending in the deep
Try then walking away on a bridge to nowhere
To nowhere, to no one

Try to explain why you've changed
I don't think I'll understand

A love that explodes
Convulsing your body
Your only hand extending under the,
Try then walking away on a bridge to nowhere
To nowhere, to no one

Try to explain why you've changed
I don't think I'll understand

Try to explain why you're leaving
I don't think I'll understand

I heard the billionth voice,
The voice of endless complexity
There were no bearings,
I heard them, they were... me
