Hey ravers, did you know that I was once where you are now

Flashback to subway ride

A midnight escape to the underground

Calling all sweet dreamers of the world

No matter what they take from you

Your dreams are just a Saturday away

Saturday people

Waiting around their whole lives for the weekend to come

Saturday people

Sitting in portable classrooms a-twirling their thumbs

Ho-hum

Maybe you've seen them

Heads hanging low on their desks stumble in on a Monday

Can hardly believe them

Sunglasses, ecstasy, vodka and tonic recovery

But hang on

Pretty soon it'll be Friday afternoon

We're all running for cover from a world going nowhere

On a Saturday night

With no reason to be just to be somebody somewhere

On a Saturday night

Girls and boys

(Saturday)

Make some noise

(Saturday)

Girls and boys

Pretty soon it'll be Monday morning

In my opinion

There's too many lives being wasted on missing the fun

Didn't or did ya

Ambition eventually leads to executive breakdown

Rave party sequel

Hop on a bus magic trip to industrial building

So hang on

It's been a long ride but you know we'll be there soon

We're all running for cover from a world going nowhere
On a Saturday night
With no reason to be just to be somebody somewhere
On a Saturday night
Girls and boys
(Saturday)
Make some noise
(Saturday)
Girls and boys

Have you seen Nelly Indigo
We were supposed to meet three hours ago I know
Oh no
Was she caught up in the corporate undertow
Was she too tired to get up and go
Guess sooner or later everybody gives in
So sad when life takes your best Saturday friend away
And life took you away
(Girls and boys
Make some noise)

We'll be running for cover from a world going nowhere
On a Saturday night
With no reason to be just to be somebody somewhere
On a Saturday night
(Girls and boys)
We'll be running for cover from a world going nowhere
On a Saturday night
(Make some noise)
With no reason to be just to be somebody somewhere
On a Saturday night
Girls and boys
(Saturday)
On a Saturday night
Make some noise
On a Saturday night
