

Prozzak "Saturday People Story"

Visit "Saturday People Story" on MotoLyrics.com

From night club to rave
From juice bar to disco tech
Simon and Milo immerse themselves
In the underbelly of the weekend

After finding Simon lying face down
In his own banana milk shake
Milo had saw that his friend had given up

Then a great unseen voice
Descended from the Heavens and announced
"Simon and Milo, it seems you have lost your way Remember your mission, only true love holds the key to your destiny"

Together the duo began to assemble
A musical account of their absurd social journey
A study if you will, of the night

Welcome to Prozzak's Saturday People and enjoy

I'm Simon, this is Milo, I'm Milo, welcome
Welcome to Prozzak's Saturday People, enjoy, enjoy
