"Where It Lies"

Visit "Where It Lies" on MotoLyrics.com

It's the loss of control that hurts the most - the fact
That no
One even knows which
Direction we are heading - the things been lead, the Times been
Spent - you give me
The strength to call it quits - you have to realize your Strength inside - you have
To build it off of something - you can't look to anyone

Else -
Can you handle the
Weight when you feel so alone - you can't dodge the Honesty -
The music, emotion,
Energy - pressure mounts, tries to make us fold - draw
Inside to
The strength we hold
