Life has given me the, me the creeps
I need you to make, to make, to make me weak
I have made my world my own, I made it my own
And I have never been so alone

I can't stop my brain from moving in an awful direction,
Lord
I can't stop my hands from doing what I don't want to anymore
I've been wrong, I've been right but tonight I just wanna be Yours

And I'm planing this out to be all about me I, I am wrong, can You help me?

I can't stop this brain from moving in an awful direction, Lord
I can't stop these hands from doing what I don't want to anymore
I've been wrong, I've been right but tonight I just wanna
be Yours

I've got to let go all this 'Cause I'm dragging me down, down

I can't stop my brain from moving in an awful direction,
Lord
I can't stop my hands from doing what I don't want to
anymore
I've been wrong, I've been right but tonight I just wanna
be Yours
I just wanna be Yours, I just wanna be Yours
