[Verse 1]

Depressed, stressed, messed up in the head Fed up upset, broke and in debt smoking cigarettes, sippin on the fifth mixing subsantces, fixing and sniff to get a lift, cause i feel down wearing a frown like a sad faced clown crown me the king of pain wondering around, pondering profound thoughts in the rain about to get a migraine, began to explain to a stranger what was going on in my brain he took a listen, looked me in the eye and said bitch nigga can't you see im parylised? from the neck down to my thighs you got it lucky little sucka, best to reckognize what he said stayed in my head all night long next morning got up out of bed and wrote this song

Chorus

Looking at my life and what ive been thru Easy is it to realise, its cool compared to Worst case scenario, Worst case scenarioooooo

[Verse 2]

My uncle went to war in Korea for matter that did not concern him saw friends loose limbs, loose lives, loose wives He got ? because he survived now focus your eyes on real or deals and feel fortunate if you aint caught up in some horrible shit sit back contemplate the fate of a state pennitentiary inmate waitin on the day to be executed even tho they know he did not do it people going thru it all over the planet and most of us tend to take things for granted like food clothing, shelter, health, the ability to provide for urself life, freedom, family, love, cos some folks aint got none of the above

Chorus

Looking at my life and what ive been thru

[Verse 3]

Young boy wanna speak up on death-money rapping but thats a different thing when that shit really happen wat u know about, gettin stretched out body sketched out and chalked on the sidewalk you talking that stuff like ur neck is ruff one second of realness, you had enough cream puffs perpatrate like life aint great elaborate, embellish, inhale it and exaggerate you fake like a weave, you make believe a phony persona u tempt to acheve deceive the mind of the dumb, deaf, blind in fact, ita a step-back for all mankind(mankind, mankind.....)
