"Human Condition"

Visit "Human Condition" on MotoLyrics.com

The weight of the moment so heavy in your hands
They read what it says... isn't that what you want?
The skin of the night is cover for the changing.
Yeah, they resent you for your changing...

And now you are one of us
Join the immortal weeping
Now you are a part of the human condition

Passion leads into the sea shaped like a smile
And still I wouldn't make that trade any day
And you open yourself up to become an erotic star
They love you, they fucked you 'til they hate you
And now you are one of us
Join the immortal weeping
Now you are a part of the human condition

Hear what you are... you are the last to know
They both told me I was secretly bound
Your tragedy make for the greatest stories told
Now listen and laugh, cry... laugh, cry
And now you are one of us
Join the immortal weeping
Now you are a part of the human condition
