Thanks for the time that we had, let me go. I knew it all would disappear. My Memories built solely on false hopes. Could this also have been a false Pretense? You yell and scream at the top of your lungs which leave your lips.
Instant gratitude, another misfortune.
.. Egotistical, self absorbent got the Best of you. The alter will not share your smile that I bear. This is my time To realize so thank you for the bullshit.
.. Thank you for the bullshit, we'll Leave this alone, thank you for the bullshit we'll leave this alone... Bring back These times; memories that couldn't last
