"Exhibit A"

I know you think it's funny
When I speak sweet to you
So laugh all you want to, honey
But what I say is true

If you take a look inside my heart
You'll find a little fire
Observe the potential it displays
Notice from time to time
The flames will climb even higher
I present to you exhibit A

This ain't no secret mission

I tell you what I plan to do
I know you have suspicions
So I'll prove my love to you

If you take a look inside my heart
You'll find a little fire
Observe the potential it displays
Notice from time to time
The flames will climb even higher
I present to you exhibit A
