Days like these
I just sit and stare
Like a bird in flight
Frozen in the air
Then suddenly
I take flight to a world
In the brilliant light
Where my art unfurls
Now I see, a revelation!,
You're my guide, imagination
So stay with me,
Despair and pain,
Let madness reign!

Do you feel my sonnet?
Do you see my music?
Do you hear my madness?
Do you speak my art?
They say that I'm demented
Partitioned and fragmented
My brain is so segmented
A million voices in my head!

I sing my madness
I sing my heart
I paint the sadness
That fills my heart
I rhyme the madness
That is my art

It's in my brain
Yes I'm insane
I sing my pain
Let Madness reign!
