Hello down there
Do you see me up here?
Floating in the sky
So, so high

Here in the light
Above the tears that fill the night
The vision I see
Defines me
And though I'm insane
Now I'm feeling no pain
A music I hear
Calms my fear

Now I'm floating up
Floating up
Floating away
Floating up, Floating up
Floating away

Here as I rise
Into the light of paradise
Three angels I see
Surround me

Their song like a prayer
A sacred chant that fills the air
The music I hear
Calms my fear

Now I'm going up
Soaring up
Floating away
Going up
Soaring up
Floating away
Floating up
Floating up
Floating away
