You scream but you don't make a sound
Your pleas fall silent to the ground

You breathe but you know that you've drowned
Ah, you bleed from thorns upon your crown

Ah, you've been living in a space unforgiving
You've come undone
Ah, you've come undone

You breathe but you know that you've drowned
Ah, you bleed from thorns upon your crown

Ah, you've been living in a space unforgiving
You've come undone
Ah, you've come undone

You scream but you don't make a sound
Your pleas fall silent to the ground

And ah, while you're living in this space unforgiving
You've come undone
Ah, you've come undone
