Because I know
you're not my friend you're something more you're all my life
that's what I told

And when you are far far away there's nothing here that I can say

Night is quite over
there's no more time
take me in your dreams tonight
Night is quite over
there's no more time
Take me in your dreams tonight..

I've got no time to wait your love and all i ask to know is if you want to stay with me for this night

I've got no time to feel the way you make my dreams come true and the love is rising too just for you

Night is quite over
there's no more time
take me in your dreams tonight
there's no more time
Take me in your dreams tonight..

now spread your wings and start to fly over this memories
cause we are like the dust in the wind..

now spread your love, i want it all i want you sing with me just a dream

just a song
just a way to start believe
