You've got rain in your eyes and a head full of stars
All the tears you can hold in your hand
And a room full of sleep and a promise to keep
Isn't it just like love?

In a world made of law, you're just losing the game
They give you these words but they've taken your name
Now you're out in the cold, now ain't that a shame
Isn't it just like love?

You can have anything you can hold in your hand
And a hero is always alone
At the end of the day it's a price that you pay
With your pieces of love all your pieces of love

And it's my time to turn you around
And it's my time to hold out a hand
And it's my time to turn on a light for you
My time, it's my time

There's a world at the door with her heart in her sleeve
And there's nowhere to turn, there is you
There's a deal to be made and a price to be paid
Isn't it just like love?

You can have anything, you could hold in your hand
And the hero is always alone
At the end of the day it's a price that you pay
With your pieces of love all your pieces of love

And it's my time to turn you around
And it's my time to hold out a hand
And it's my time to turn on a light for you
My time, it's my time

So we stand in the dark and the sun never shows
And you're whispering secrets that everyone knows
So we know that they told you, they just want to hold you
Use you and take you and lose you and fake you

You have everything, you can hold in your hand

But a hero is always alone
At the end of the day it's a price that you pay
With your pieces of love all your pieces of love

It's my time to turn you around
And it's my time to hold out a hand
And it's my time to turn on a light for you
My time, it's my time

It's my time to turn you around
And it's my time to hold out a hand
And it's my time to turn on a light for you
My time, it's my time
