"Masquerade"

In the shadows where the stranger's never seen
Lives your darkest fear
Like the animal that wakes at night to feed
In for the kill

Cover your eyes, oh what a clever disguise

It's just a masquerade, strange faces on parade
What evil do you bear, behind that mask you wear?

Take the glory from the past that's never been
In your darkest hour
You're the driver in the race you can not win
So near the end

Cover your eyes, oh what a clever disguise

It's just a masquerade, strange faces on parade
What evil do you bear, behind that mask you wear?
