There's no reason to be tellin' you lies
Our love isn't "Gone with the wind"
Don't act like you were ever surprised
I want to do it again
Yes, baby -The only words
You'll hear from me
In dark eyes I'm paralyzed
I know it's no use, but I just keep on

Running away, maybe someday
I'll find the key to your spell
And I can be free

Poison Ivy, I know this is wrong
But your love is so strong

Poison Ivy, won't let me be

Like bolt lightning coming out of the sky
Face and your body hit me (and I feel it)
No way that we could ever deny
Black magic is real, but still I'm

Running away, maybe someday
I'll find the key to your spell
And I can be free

Poison Ivy, I know this is wrong
But your love is so strong
Poison Ivy, won't let me be
