"Rule The World"

It doesn't matter to me, if everything changes
As long as we'll be, we'll be free
Together we'll find a new way
To deal with the dangers
Surrounding us today, today

Evil forces are praying to their god that they can
Rule the World
Now is the time we should come together
Rule the World
With iron fist and boots of leather
We can never let them, let them rule the world

Now am I out here all alone, or are you all with me?
United by the light, our fight
No reservations or manifestations,
Of fear in your heart
Be apart

Evil forces are praying to their god that they can
Rule the World
Now is the time we should come together
Rule the World
With iron fist and boots of leather
We can never let them, let them rule the world
