Song by Morley

Love me when nobody else can see
Touch my soul, then treat me like I am a stranger
This is not the way I want to feel
Should have known a love this strong
Would bring some danger

But if it's all in my head
I'll find a way to make it end
It's magic and it's tragic

Slingshots whisper my teardrops an answer
What am I to you
Slingshots you forgot my kisses don't miss this
What am I to you

Shame, how you got me
Ripping words off my lips to keep from asking
I fall when you call
Press my ear against the phone to hear your lips move

I guess it's all in my head
And in time I'll make amends
It's magic but it's so tragic

I want you so bad
What's wrong with me baby
I want you so bad
What's wrong with you baby

Love me when nobody else can see
Touch my soul then treat me like a stranger
This is not the way I like to feel
I should have known a love this strong
Would bring some danger

Slingshots whisper my teardrops an answer
What am I to you
Slingshots you forgot my kisses don't miss this
What am I to you

Beads fall from a delicate string
My love is too strong to want you
In the way we've been taught to take
