Cloud over my head,
I see it getting closer
So many regrets,
Could this be my reward ?
Thunder signals,
It's coming any minute
Out in the open,
There's no escaping this

I'm out, Here take my chances,
I've walked to far to turn
It's just like in your dream
You woke up crying for me
I knew this would happen
been brewing now for so long
I knew this would happen
I wanted you to be wrong

No use running
It gets you nowhere
No use running
It gets you nowhere
No use running
It gets you nowhere
No use running
It gets you nowhere
No use running
It gets you nowhere

Then when I wake up
I see the whole dream
You're right behind me
I see the whole dream
Then when I wake up
I see the whole dream
You're right behind me
You're right behind me

As the umbrella opens,
The rain begins to fall,
It's coming down around me,

I see it burn the ground

But not one drop hits my head
But not one drop hits my head

And so you kept your promise

Not one drop,
Hits my head,
Not one drop,
Not one drop
Hits my head,
Hits my head,

And so you kept your promise

Not one drop,
Hits my head,
Not one drop,
Not one drop
Hits my head,
Hits my head,
